Destination information

Barcelona is a modern and cosmopolitan city with a rich historic & artistic heritage, including the Gothic Quarter, the cathedral, La Ribera district or Santa María del Mar church. This Medieval architecture coexists with Modernist buildings by Gaudí (La Pedrera, La Sagrada Família, Casa Batlló, Park Güell...) and Domènech i Montaner (Palau de la Música Catalana auditorium, Santa Creu i Sant Pau hospital), some of which have been declared World Heritage Sites by UNESCO.

Other famous landmarks include La Rambla, La Boqueria market, Liceu Opera House, La Ciutadella park and Montjuïc. Also worth mentioning is the marina, which has become a must-see due to the beach and the culture and leisure options on offer.

Thanks to the excellent transport networks, the infrastructures and the excellent climate, countless trade fairs and international conferences are held every year in Barcelona, in venues like the Fira de Barcelona, the Catalonia Convention Centre or the Palau Sant Jordi. Because of that, the city has become an important financial and business centre.
