Destination information

Madrid combines its status as an economic and financial centre with an extensive cultural heritage. The historic centre, also called "Madrid de los Austrias", includes tourist attractions such as Plaza Mayor square, the Royal Palace, Plaza de Oriente square, Sabatini gardens, Teatro Real opera house, La Almudena cathedral or Puerta del Sol square.

Art and culture also play a key role in the city's cultural life. It has more than 60 museums, including El Prado Museum —one of the world's most important museums—, the Thyssen Bornemisza Museum —with over 800 paintings— and the Reina Sofía National Art Centre —dedicated to the Spanish modern art.

Also worth mentioning are the beautifully maintained parks and gardens, like El Retiro, Casa de Campo and Juan Carlos I parks, and the city's most important avenues: Gran Vía and Paseo de La Castellana. But if there's one thing that sets Madrid apart it's the wide array of leisure options: concerts, exhibitions, ballets, plays, musicals, bars, taverns, shops...

Madrid boasts exceptional facilities for trade fairs, conferences and exhibitions. It has two convention centres and two complexes, Casa de Campo and Campo de las Naciones (IFEMA), with the most modern equipment.
