Short description

Located in the Bay of El Palmer, in an intimate and semi-private cove between Aguadulce and the city of Almeria, is Mirador del Cabo, a quiet designed for adults establishment facing the sea. This hotel is not just a destination, it is an experience. A perfect space for those looking to escape from routine, away from responsibilities and the daily hustle and bustle.

Full description

ROOMS
Mirador del Cabo offers fully equipped rooms with furnished balcony or terrace, safe, telephone, minibar, air conditioning/heating, television, ceiling fan and spectacular frontal sea views.

FACILITIES & SERVICES
The hotel offers two outdoor swimming pools with sea view (one of which is exclusively for customers of El Palmer Restaurant), a jacuzzi and sun loungers. In addition to other paid services available to the client such as dry cleaning, laundry, ironing, parking or souvenir shop.

RESTAURANTS & BARS
At Mirador del Cabo, you'll find the 'La Parra' buffet restaurant, offering breakfast and dinner buffets, live cooking and magnificent sea views, as well as a pool bar serving drinks. A 5-minute walk from the hotel, in a separate building, is the Aguadulce Pool Club & Restaurant, where you can enjoy a range of dishes overlooking the sea or relax with a day pass at its swimming pool (a service provided by a third party and subject to a charge).

Destination information

Located only 12km from Almeria, Aguadulce is one of the main touristic points in the province. A 5-minute drive from the hotel, it has a marina —very lively at night— with lots of restaurants, bars, ice cream shops, gift shops, and many other services. It also offers activities such as kayaking, snorkelling, scuba diving, jet ski hire and boat rides. Another highlight is its Exhibition & Conference Centre.

The beaches in Aguadulce feature bathing areas adapted for people with reduced mobility. They have been awarded with the Blue Flag certification due to their high environmental quality and the facilities they offer. Due to the warm sea temperature, bathing season here lasts longer than in other places.
