With more than 3,200 hours of sunshine a year, average temperatures of 25.2C°, non-existent rainfall and transparent waters with the maximum environmental qualification, Águilas is an ideal destination for sun and beach as well as for nautical and sports tourism, diving or relaxation. Águilas has a coastline of 28 km and 35 coves and fine sandy beaches where you can relax and enjoy the sun. Unique spots such as "la Catedral", "Isla del Fraile", "Piedra del Covacho" also make its sea beds into diving areas especially appreciated by diving enthusiasts.
